

Our NCFR Family

Stephen Gavazzi with son, John. Stephen, a family scholar and researcher at The Ohio State University, now is Dean of Ohio State University at Mansfield.

Our NCFR Family

Lyndal Khaw Nichols
at commencement
with her mother, Long She Moy, in spring 2010.

Lyndal's parents traveled half way
round the world (from Malaysia to the University of Illinois) to celebrate.

Our NCFR Family

...is an international member this time. Bonnie Barber, a developmental psychologist at Murdoch University in Perth, Western Australia, and her husband, David Butler.

Our NCFR Family

This time we have a “double” NCFR family! Lis Maurer, CFLE, (left) is the founder and Director of the Center for LGBT Education, Outreach & Services at Ithaca College in Ithaca, New York. Partner Maureen Kelly (right) is a CFLE as well and is Vice President for Education & Communications at Planned Parenthood of the Southern Finger Lakes.

This photo was taken on a 2003 trip to Africa as part of a professional international exchange project focusing on sexual/reproductive health and HIV/AIDS.

Our NCFR Family

NCFR member Joe Wilmoth (“Papa Joe”) proudly shows off his fictive kin, “grandson” Tyler, whose family is a neighbor couple. Joe explains, “Steve and Cynthia Brown have been wonderful neighbors. When we learned they were expecting their first child, Zelda and I told them we were going to be ‘surrogate grandparents.’ We’ve been ‘Papa Joe’ and ‘Nana Z’ since Tyler was born, and he’s been like a grandson to us. One of his first words was ‘Papa’—one of my most significant bragging points.” Thanks to Joe and wife Zelda for being “grandparents of the heart” to precious Tyler and to Steve and Cynthia Brown for their permission to feature Tyler in “Our NCFR Family.”

