

Achieve OnDemand 2018 Winter-Spring Webinar Series

Maintaining Boundaries in Home Visiting for Supervisors

Date: 04/12/2018

Time: 12:00 PM-1:00 PM (Central)

Facilitator: Barbara Terhall

As a supervisor, how can you help home visitors set and maintain boundaries with the families they serve? The discussion will cover self-awareness, challenges home visitors face, and how to support staff.

This webinar complements the Supervising Home Visitors self-paced course.

Matching Family Needs to Resources

Date: 04/18/2018

Time: 12:00 PM-1:00 PM (Central)

Facilitator: Lauren Wiley

As a home visitor, it can be challenging to align available resources to the needs of families. This webinar explores how to carry out your role in the infant mental health spectrum and feel confident in connecting families to community resources and supports when the need arises.

This webinar complements the Foundations of Infant Mental Health in Home Visiting self-paced course.

The Impact of Domestic Violence on Children

Date: 04/25/2018

Time: 12:00 PM-1:00 PM (Central)

Facilitator: Dara Williamson

As a home visitor, how can you help families understand child growth, child development, and how parenting techniques may impact their child's development? This webinar focuses on risk factors, family patterns, and cultural beliefs related to domestic violence.

This webinar complements the Domestic Violence in Home Visiting self-paced course.

Exploring Values and Beliefs around Parenting

Date: 05/03/2018

Time: 12:00 PM-1:00 PM (Central)

Facilitator: Ariel Chaidez

We all come to the table with our own beliefs about parenting. This webinar covers how to acknowledge and monitor those beliefs and address how they may impact the work we do with families.

This webinar complements the Foundations of Infant Mental Health in Home Visiting self-paced course.

Achieve OnDemand 2018 Winter-Spring Webinar Series

Trauma in Families and Communities

Date: 05/30/2018

Time: 12:00 PM-1:00 PM (Central)

Facilitator: Kit Patterson

As a home visitor, how can you support yourself and the families you work with in an intentional and trauma-informed manner? This webinar identifies common missteps in working with families impacted by trauma. We will examine different strategies you can employ to support your families who are experiencing trauma.

This webinar complements the Impact of Trauma in Home Visiting self-paced course.

Understanding Substance Abuse Through the Family's Lens

Date: 06/14/2018

Time: 12:00 PM-1:00 PM (Central)

Facilitator: Christa Austin

As a home visitor, how do you intentionally respond to situations where substance abuse is present in the families you support? This webinar discusses ways to recognize a family's values and strengths which can help guide you approach when working with a family impacted by substance abuse. We will also explore how substance abuse affects family dynamics.

This webinar complements Challenges in Home Visiting: Substance Abuse self-paced course.

Being Present with Families

Date: 06/21/2018

Time: 12:00 PM-1:00 PM (Central)

Facilitator: Bill McKenzie

How do our personal values and experiences impact the work we do? The qualities of being nonjudgmental, present and an active listener will be covered as well as some potential barriers to active listening.

This webinar complements the Basics of Home Visiting self-paced course.

Promoting Effective Parenting with Motivational Interviewing

Date: 06/27/2018

Time: 12:00 PM-1:00 PM (Central)

Facilitator: Dara Williamson

Reflective practice is essential to providing high-quality home visiting services and engaging with families. The utilization of motivational interviewing in reflective practice can greatly enhance the effectiveness of services and improve relationships with families served. Motivational interviewing is a collaborative, person-centered form of guiding to elicit and strengthen motivation for change. This webinar identifies the fundamental elements of motivational interviewing and explores strategies for using motivational interviewing in home visiting.

This webinar complements the Basics of Home Visiting self-paced course.