We are seeking input from scholars, practitioners, CFLEs, and students at all levels about how to create a sustainable organization-wide mentoring program within NCFR to support emerging family scholars. In our discussion, we will share results from the membership survey that was distributed in Spring 2018 and share plans for a pilot mentoring program that will launch at the 2019 conference. Please join us to share your feedback and insights to help us launch this program in a way that supports our members! We hope to hear from those seeking mentorship as well as those interested in offering mentorship. Snacks and refreshments will be provided. If you cannot attend and would like more information please contact Kimberly Crossman, Student and New Professional Representative to the NCFR Board of Directors, kcrossman@csumb.edu.
