

2019 NCFR FELLOW STATUS NOMINATION FORM

THIS FORM IS TO BE COMPLETED BY THE NCFR MEMBER NOMINATING A CANDIDATE FOR FELLOW STATUS AND MUST BE RETURNED TO THE NCFR HEADQUARTERS BY SEPTEMBER 15TH.

What are the criteria for NCFR Fellow Status?

Nominees must have made outstanding contributions to the field and to NCFR as an organization. Satisfying a combination of these criteria is required. Examples of outstanding contributions include:

1. published, refereed scholarship that has shaped or reshaped the Family Science;
2. a history of innovation in practice or outreach that has transformed the field, such as the development and implementation of novel or significant interventions or programs designed to promote healthy family relations;
3. recognition of teaching excellence through awards and mentoring;
4. development and implementation of innovative curricula for training professionals in the area of Family Science;
5. development and implementation of innovative social policy relevant to families;
6. history of innovation and publication about the methods and measurement strategies used in related family science arenas;
7. outstanding contributions to NCFR as an organization may include a history of organizing conference symposia, editing/guest editing NCFR journals, or developing nationally distributed products/curricula that bridge Family Science and practice.
8. must have at least 10 years of professional experience after the receipt of the appropriate graduate or professional degree;
9. must have held NCFR membership continuously for the past five years at the time of nomination.

What is the procedure for nominations?

1. Nominees must be nominated by another NCFR Member.*
2. Nominees must have the endorsement of two additional individuals, one of whom must be an NCFR member†, describing the outstanding nature of the nominee's contributions.
3. In general, nominees should not be aware that they are being considered for Fellow Status. For this reason, the NCFR office will not contact candidates for Fellow Status at the time of their nominations.

*Nominations from NCFR members involved in the nominee's academic preparation (e.g. major advisor, administrative head of the program from which the nominee graduated) or who have possible conflicts of interest (e.g., partner or family members) will not be accepted.

†Endorsements from NCFR members with a potential conflict of interest may be included with the nomination packet, but cannot be used to satisfy the requirement for endorsement by an NCFR member.
