A primary goal of the MAST Center is to build capacity in the HMRE field by: 1) providing support to emerging scholars (graduate students and early career professionals) and 2) facilitating strong connections between HMRE research and HMRE practice. As part of these efforts, the MAST Center is partnering with NCFR to host two special networking sessions while at the 2019 NCFR Annual Conference. Event 1 is aimed at connecting emerging scholars with established scholars, and Event 2 is aimed at bringing practitioners and researchers together. (Program continues next page) |
