Proposal for Establishing an NCFR Focus Group

An NCFR focus group consists of at least 15 current NCFR members with a specific family interest that is not central to any existing NCFR section or other NCFR focus group.

A focus group that abides by the NCFR focus group governance handbook will be granted a time and space to assemble at the NCFR annual conference: have an NCFR sponsored discussion group; and have a focus group webpage with assistance from NCFR staff to maintain.
