

Call for Proposals

2021 Family Life Education Summit: Strengthening & Supporting the Work of Family Life Educators

Sponsored by the National Council on Family Relations

Friday, June 25, 2021

NCFR's first virtual Family Life Education conference will focus on practitioners at all experience levels working with and for families.

Participants will learn from and make important connections with fellow practitioners and will gain practical tools and ideas for how to support and empower families within their specific contexts.

Proposals are welcomed on any aspect of Family Life Education. We are especially interested in presentations or workshops focused on the following topics:

- Adverse Childhood Experiences
- Advocating for Family Life Education
- Cultural engagement
- Domains of Family Practice model
- Family life coaching
- Grant writing
- Identifying evidence-based programs and practices
- Parenting education
- Program development
- Program evaluation
- Program implementation
- Promoting equity and addressing racism
- Providing Family Life Education online
- Relationship & marriage education
- Running a Family Life Education business
- Trauma informed practice
- Working with diverse populations

Please submit your proposal no later than Thursday, April 15, 11:59 p.m. PDT

You will be notified by May 7, 2021.
