

Welcome! This page offers students in social science courses engagement opportunities in civic, research, and cross-cultural engagement. To learn more about these kinds of engagement, click the "about" links below. To start participating in one of the engagement opportunities offered by the UMA Social Science program, click an "opportunity" link below.

Civic Engagement

About Civic Engagement in Social Science

Civic Engagement Opportunities:

- Volunteer in the UMA Augusta Community Garden
- Become a Literacy Volunteer
- Social Justice Reading Group
- CASH Maine: Free Tax Prep Volunteering
- Advisory Committee Member - Substance Abuse and Smoking Cessation
- Safe Housing: West Virginia Spring Service Trip

Research Engagement

About Social Science Research

Research Engagement Opportunities:

- Mothers' Conceptualizations and Navigations of "Mom Rage" Experiences
- Patient-Provider Communication
- Bangor Garden Research Event Series
- Advisory Committee Member - Substance Abuse and Smoking Cessation
- Governing Our Bodies as Hispanic/Latinx Women : Negotiating Menstruation, Sex Acts, and Reproductive Health
- Civic Engagement Interest Survey

Cross-Cultural Engagement

About Social Science approaches to Culture

Cross-Cultural Engagement Opportunities:

- Exploring Wabanaki/Maine History with Maine Wabanaki REACH

Source: University of Maine at Augusta, Social Science Engagement Clearinghouse