My signature below signifies that I have read and accept the following statements:

The National Council on Family Relations (NCFR) owns all copyrights on its magazines and their contents. To ensure protection of both NCFR and its authors at the time an article is accepted for publication, NCFR requires that the author(s) formally assign copyrights to NCFR.

1. I specifically transfer to the National Council on Family Relations (NCFR) full and complete ownership of any copyright I may have with respect to the work entitled above.
2. I agree to refer to NCFR all requests to republish or reprint the whole or any part of my work, including my own requests. NCFR will respect the wishes of the author as to the use of his/her writings to every extent consistent with NCFR's purposes and goals. If any of the writings are republished or reprinted for the author's use, no fee will be assessed. Authors may reprint articles for their own use.
3. I have obtained written permission to use any quotations or excerpt from another work not in the public domain or covered by fair use provisions of U.S. Copyright Law. Proper acknowledgement has been given for such use of other materials in this new work.
4. I agree that the editor will do what is necessary to prepare the article for publication-including changes in the title, style, and format to conform to editorial usage, format of the magazine, and NCFR style. Changes may include such last-minute deletions as necessary to meet the requirements of space and format.
5. I understand that if there are substantive changes, I will receive a review copy of the first edits of the article and the editor will complete the final editing on the second proof of the article.
6. I understand that I, as an author, can purchase copies of the issue in which this article appears, at a 50% reduction in the single issues copy, if ordered with the reprints before publication. Reprints are available for a fee in quantities of 100 or more. The cost of the reprints will depend on the number of printed pages.
