

2022 Section Year-End Report

Section: ___ Families and Health _____

Chair: ___ Amber Seidel _____

Chair's E-mail: ___ ajs49@psu.edu _____

Chair-elect: ___ Jeremy Yorgason _____

Chair-elect's Email: ___ jeremy\_yorgason@byu.edu _____

Complete the following questions:

1. What were your section's major 2022 projects?
  - a. Continue to pursue an interdisciplinary award or connections with Family Policy and Racial and Ethnic Diversity in Families section
  - b. Partner with a few focus groups and invite them to do a symposium at NCFR with their focus group and health themed.
  - c. Follow up with members regarding what we are learning about the COVID19 pandemic and families. Brought in a special session for this.

2. What has your section done to further NCFR's inclusion and diversity initiatives over the past year?

We partnered with other sections to bring in some special sessions for the NCFR conference exploring families and health in diverse populations.

We emphasize inclusion and diversity in our paper and poster awards.

3. What assistance would you like to have had from NCFR staff this past year?
  - Assistance in understanding and carrying out the appropriate role of FH section in reviewing applications for the Ruth Hathaway Jewson Award
  - Ensure advertising of FH awards and section leadership positions are posted consistently on the NCFR web site and various linked pages
  - encourage the January planning meeting to focus on Special sessions rather than logistics of the conference

4. Do you have any concerns or questions you would like to pass along to NCFR staff?

---

---

Attach your annual budget and return by Friday, October 14 to membership@ncfr.org