

Guidelines for CFLE Network Book Reviews

Thank you for your interest in reviewing a book for the Certified Family Life Educator (CFLE) Network. The following publishing guidelines apply:

- Highlight the relevance of a particular publication to the practice of Family Life Education, when appropriate.
- If relevant, identify themes that are applicable in teaching, learning and/or practice within the larger framework of Family Life Education.
- Highlight what makes this publication unique.
- What is of value in terms of content?
- Try not to summarize the contents of an entire book, or to reword the table of contents.
- The review may be edited to suit final publication formats and may be published electronically on the NCFR website and/or published in printed format.
- Please submit review to networkeditor@ncfr.org.

Word count, font, and layout:

- Approximately 1000 words.
- Times New Roman font size 11.
- Include one space between paragraphs.
- Do not indent the first line of each paragraph.
- One space after periods.
- Please be sure to provide the following information regarding the book at the beginning of the review (masthead): Title, full name of author, year of publication, publisher, ISBN, page count. If possible, provide a high-resolution jpeg or PNG file of the book's cover.

Author Bio:

- Provide a brief 1-3 sentence bio with name, credentials, title, and employer. Provide contact information such as email - if willing.
- Please return a signed copy of the copyright / release form and email back to Networkeditor@ncfr.org. Reviews can only be published if the completed and signed form is on record.
