- Put out a call for nominators and judges for next year awards
 - Brandon Wheeler – will be a judge again
 - We will follow-up with a listserv email
- Conference symposia
 - Thanks to Kaitlin and Sofia for leading the two symposia that were submitted this year
 - Put out a call for volunteers to organize symposia next year (we will follow-up with a listserv email)
- A time for open conversation - any news/updates in the field, any collaborations needed, etc.
 - Matthew Organ – asked about survey on income and program participation (SIPP) and panel survey of income dynamics
 - Sharon discussed an educational program about financial capabilities through a lens of historical trauma (alleviates shame and stress)
 - David Allsop – commented on the exciting growth in the field
 - Sofia shared that she and Ashley Lebaron-Black are working on a meta-analysis about financial socialization
 - Hanna – asked for suggestions of intergenerational datasets focused on finances over time. The group was able to give her many suggestions! 😊
 - Meredith – asked about financial literacy program evaluation best practices
 - A suggestion was made to consider a mid-year check in by zoom to stay better connected throughout the year. Relatedly, several focus groups help a virtual meeting this year before the conference. Is that something we are interested in?
 - Joyce is working on a Family Focus special issue focused on finances. This was interest from numerous attendees on making this a prioritized goal for the focus group.
