

NCFR Honors Student Recognition Program Scoring Rubric - Master's Students

An honor available to all master's students that qualify.

Student name: _____

Reviewer name: _____

All of the required six items listed below have been met.

Current NCFR Membership
Official transcripts included

At least 30 Credits in Family Coursework
Recommendation received by NCFR

Major GPA 3.5 or higher
$35 fee paid

Application Presentation

5

4

3

2

1

Application written and presented well. It is typed, proofed, and free of grammatical and spelling errors.

Application exhibits some grammatical or spelling errors, and/or needs to be proofread.

Application is not well written and needs extensive revision to spelling, grammar, and/or other presentation aspects.

Scholarship in Family Science (research published and/or research presented; working on a research team)

5

4

3

2

1

Scholarly article in progress and research presented; or exemplary evidence of work on a collaborative research team and a scholarly article in progress; or presented research and exemplary evidence of work on a collaborative research team

Scholarly article in progress but not presented; or research presented without a scholarly article in progress; or evidence of occasional work on a collaborative research team providing support to the research process

Limited to no research experience

Leadership in Family Science - frequency & relevance to Family Science (focus on work done during time working on master's degree)

5

4

3

2

1

Exemplary evidence of sustained and relevant leadership during master's experience.

Evidence of occasional and relevant leadership during master's experience.

Irregular or no evidence of leadership during master's experience.

Community Service in Family Science - frequency & relevance to Family Science (focus on work done during time working on master's degree)

5

4

3

2

1

Exemplary evidence of sustained and relevant service to community during master's experience.

Evidence of occasional and relevant service to community during master's experience.

Irregular or no evidence of service to community during master's experience.

Recommendation Letter(s)

5

4

3

2

1

Strong recommendation

Recommended

Not recommended

Comments

Total Score /25