

NCFR Honors Student Recognition Program Scoring Rubric - Doctoral Students

An honor available to all doctoral students that qualify.

Student name: _____

Reviewer name: _____

All of the required six items listed below have been met.

Current NCFR Membership
Official transcripts included

At least 30 Credits in Family Coursework
Recommendation received by NCFR

Major GPA 3.5 or higher
$35 fee paid

Application Presentation

5

4

3

2

1

Application written and presented well. It is typed, proofed, and free of grammatical and spelling errors.

Application exhibits some grammatical or spelling errors, and/or needs to be proofread.

Application is not well written and needs extensive revision to spelling, grammar, and/or other presentation aspects.

Scholarship in Family Science (research published and/or research presented)

5

4

3

2

1

Research published and presented

Research published but not presented, or research presented but not published

Limited to no research experience

Leadership in Family Science - frequency & relevance to Family Science (focus on work done during doctoral education)

5

4

3

2

1

Exemplary evidence of sustained and relevant leadership during doctoral experience.

Evidence of occasional and relevant leadership during doctoral experience.

Irregular or no evidence of leadership during doctoral experience.

Community Service in Family Science - frequency & relevance to Family Science (focus on work done during doctoral education)

5

4

3

2

1

Exemplary evidence of sustained and relevant service to community during doctoral experience.

Evidence of occasional and relevant service to community during doctoral experience.

Irregular or no evidence of service to community during doctoral experience.

Recommendation Letter(s)

5

4

3

2

1

Strong recommendation

Recommended

Not recommended

Comments

Total Score /25