

NCFR Honors Student Recognition Program Scoring Rubric - Undergraduate Students

An honor available to all undergraduate students that qualify.

Student name: _____

Reviewer name: _____

All of the required six items below have been met.

Current NCFR Membership
Official transcripts included

At least 30 Credits in Family Coursework
Recommendation received by NCFR

Major GPA 3.5 or higher (Scholarship)
$35 fee paid

Application Presentation

5

4

3

2

1

Application written and presented well. It is typed, proofed, and free of grammatical and spelling errors.

Application exhibits some grammatical or spelling errors, and/or needs to be proofread.

Application is not well written and needs extensive revision to spelling, grammar, and/or other presentation aspects.

Leadership in Family Science - frequency & relevance to Family Science (focus on work done during undergraduate years)

5

4

3

2

1

Exemplary evidence of sustained and relevant leadership during undergraduate experience.

Evidence of occasional and relevant leadership during undergraduate experience.

Irregular or no evidence of leadership during undergraduate experience.

Community Service in Family Science - frequency & relevance to Family Science (focus on work done during undergraduate years)

5

4

3

2

1

Exemplary evidence of sustained and relevant service to community during undergraduate experience.

Evidence of occasional and relevant service to community during undergraduate experience.

Irregular or no evidence of service to community during undergraduate experience.

Recommendation Letter(s)

5

4

3

2

1

Strong recommendation

Recommended

Not recommended

Comments

Total Score /20